COIDA REQUIREMENTS

The aim of the COID Act is to provide for compensation in the case of disablement caused by occupational injuries and diseases, sustained or contracted by employees in the course of their employment, or death resulting from such injuries and diseases; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

Workers who are injured on duty or obtain an occupational disease can claim compensation for temporary or permanent disablement. If workers die as a result of an injury on duty, their dependants will also be entitled to claim compensation. Employers that registered their employees are protected against civil claims in this regard. The COIDA basically prevents employees covered by the act from suing their employers for damages in terms of common law.

Please note that the following employers are exempted and do not have to pay assessment fees:

- National and provincial state departments;
- Certain local authorities
- Employers insured by a company other than the Compensation Fund like Mutual Associations. There are currently two approved mutual associations:
 - Federated Employers Mutual Assurance (FEMA), for the building industry; and
 - Rand Mutual Assurance Company (RMA), for the mining industry.

According to prescription, anyone who employs one or more part- or full-time workers must register with the Compensation Fund and pay annual assessment fees. The Compensation Fund is a trust fund that is controlled by the Compensation Commissioner and employer contributes to the Compensation Fund. The Commissioner is appointed to administer the Fund and approve claims lodge by employees or their dependants. This means that the Fund will compensate the employee or their dependants and not the employer.

Where a service provider do not have any personnel in employment at time of tender, a letter from the Department of Labour must still be submitted indicating this status. A period of 14 days will be allowed after tender award for registration.
